

Federal Government Spent $8.2 Billion On Medical Supply Chain

HIDA Market Report Examines Procurement Purchases

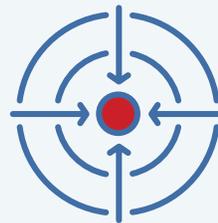

Total Spending

U.S. federal government spending on medical supplies exceeded $8.2 billion in fiscal year 2021.

Agency Concentration

Four agencies – Defense, Homeland Security, Veterans Affairs and Health & Human Services – accounted for 98% of federal purchases.

Small Business Focus

In FY 2021, $2.4 billion in federal contracts were awarded to small businesses selling medical goods. This includes 38% of defense and 22% of civilian agency medical supply purchases.

Supplier Diversity Goals

Diverse small businesses were awarded $1.35 billion in medical supply contracts in FY 2021 – including minority-owned, woman-owned, veteran-owned, Indian-owned, or located in Historically Underutilized Business Zones.